

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 25, 2010

10:50 AM

Jesus taught his disciples how to pray. First, hallow God’s name and let God reign. Thereafter, pray daily for what you need to sustain you and seek forgiveness for the wrongs you have done. Keep away from temptations, since they lead to disobedience. Remember, above all, that God is faithful; God sends the Holy Spirit to fulfill every need.

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Nursery care for infants and toddlers is available in the Educational Wing.

WELCOME/PASSING OF THE PEACE/MEDITATION

All are asked to complete the attendance register in the pew and pass it along to each person. Please indicate any prayer concerns also to be given to the ushers during the offering.

Call to Worship

God is eager to restore us to right relationships. The Creator is waiting to claim us now as God’s own.

We have come to meet the God who welcomes us. We have gathered to experience God’s steadfast love.

Listen, for God will speak to those who want to hear. Turn your hearts toward the one who saves.

We bow down to receive God’s mercy. We open ourselves to the source of peace.

God will answer us and will give what is good. God restores us to faithfulness and righteousness.

We come asking, searching, and knocking. We seek the good gifts only God can provide.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

We want them to be put to the best possible use. May they save many from the course of evil and turn them toward faithful discipleship. May they provide bread for body and soul, that your people may be preserved and strengthened for ministry. Bless and multiply our efforts, we pray. Amen.
